

THE YACHT CONCIERGE

Making Life Easier Ashore and Afloat

Anyone who's ever used a concierge service knows just what an invaluable time saver it can be. Things that might otherwise take you hours to arrange are taken care of in minutes with just one call. From finding gifts and running errands, to making bookings, reservations and sorting out emergencies, almost anything is possible. The Yacht Concierge takes the concierge concept one step further, providing not only the full array of conventional shore-based services but also taking care of everything to do with your yacht, whether you're on board or on the other side of the world.

Saving You Time and Money

If you think The Yacht Concierge's services must surely be expensive, you couldn't be more wrong. Being a member of The Yacht Concierge can actually save you money! Services and supplies that you request through The Yacht Concierge will often cost less than if you purchased them direct, as a result of The Yacht Concierge's special member discounts. Savings on yacht fuel can be substantial in certain parts of the world, with significant discounts on chandlery and other marine supplies. Even your annual membership fee can be offset by The Yacht Concierge's special members rebate on yacht insurance.

A World of Expertise

The Yacht Concierge is like having a full staff of personal assistants, with the expertise and local knowledge to find and arrange whatever you want. The Yacht Concierge uses a well-established international, multi-lingual concierge infrastructure to deliver its everyday onshore concierge services, with the additional marine services provided by an exclusive network of specialists in the marine field. It's a service that is truly worldwide. Wherever you are, The Yacht Concierge is just a phone call away.
